Fairfield Trust Job Description and Person Specification

Job title: Young Peoples' Services Support Worker
Work base: Fairfield Trust, Dilton Marsh	Team: Young Peoples' Services
Hours of work: Full Time hours + 2 sleep-ins per week	Salary: £30,030.00 (based on 40 hours + 2 sleep-ins per week)

Safeguarding

Fairfield Trust is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of young people. All staff are expected to share this commitment. You will be expected to report any concerns relating to the safeguarding of young people in accordance with agreed procedures. If your own conduct in relation to the safeguarding of young people gives cause for concern, Fairfield Trust agreed child and adult protection procedures will be followed.

This position involves contact with vulnerable groups. It is exempt from the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 and all subsequent amendments (England and Wales). For this position you are not entitled to withhold information about police cautions, bind-overs, or any criminal convictions that would otherwise have been considered as 'spent' under the act.

All staff are required to have a clear DBS check prior to starting work at the Trust.

Job context and purpose

Fairfield Trust is a local independent Charity, the core business areas are: an independent specialist college for young people with learning difficulties and disabilities; young people's services such as residential opportunities, independence programs and living well in the community, and a series of commercial ventures; including a pub, an animal park, a café and shop.

The Trust's mission is: To enable young people to live and work without barriers

Our 5 agreed values are:

Teamwork: We hold ourselves and each other to account, and are better when we work together

Compassion: We act with trust, honesty and kindness in everything we do

Inclusion: We treat each other fairly and with respect

Innovation: We encourage thoughtful, creative and aspirational ideas

Pride: We encourage each other to be proud of who we are and what we do

Our Support Workers provide caring and compassionate support to all our young People, enabling them to access college, learn new skills and live fulfilling lives.

We offer a generous holiday entitlement per annum inclusive of Bank Holidays, to be taken in negotiation with the team.

There is a pension scheme available for eligible staff.

Financial responsibility

Always ensure effective use of resources and value for money is secured for the Trust.

Health and Safety

To be responsible for your own health and safety and that of anyone else who may be affected by your acts or omissions. You will be responsible for risk assessing, reviewing and monitoring all aspects of your work.

Equality and Diversity

You are required neither to discriminate against nor harass or victimise: colleagues, suppliers or third parties at work. You are further required to report incidents of discrimination at work, either to the Principal or anonymously to the Chair of Trustees.

Records management

You are responsible for ensuring that all information sources for which you have responsibility are maintained in-line with guidance. This applies to all electronic and hard copy information.

You should also ensure that access permissions are maintained to limit access to sensitive information. You are responsible for maintaining the confidentiality of sensitive data, whether held electronically or in hard copy and promptly reporting all breaches, or potential breaches of security to the Principal.

Other duties

You may be required to perform duties other than those given in the job description. The particular duties and responsibilities attached to jobs may vary from time to time without changing the general character of the duties, or the level of responsibility entailed. Such variations are a common occurrence and would not in themselves justify the re-evaluation of a job. In cases, however, where a permanent and substantial change in the duties and responsibilities of a job occurs, consistent with a higher level of responsibility, then the job would be eligible for re-evaluation.

Authority to work in the UK

You must have the legal authority to work in the UK. You must have the relevant approval to work in the UK from the UK Border Agency or relevant documentation. Copies of all documents provided by you as proof of identity are retained for our records, by providing these proofs the Trust will treat this as your consent for this to happen.
